

Saigon's Nightlife by Vintage Vespa

Half-Day

Hop on vintage Vespas to uncover Saigon's iconic landmarks and hidden alleys off the tourist radar, with ample stops along the way, to enjoy South Vietnamese Cuisine and chilled craft beer.

Saigon comes alive at night with scores of locals on scooters, zigzagging their way through busy intersections and narrow bylanes. Following the residents' footsteps in this booming metropolis, hop on a classic Vespa to enjoy its chaos and unencumbered beauty that popular tourist sites do not typically capture.

At our dinner stop, enjoy the ubiquitous Banh Mi, a staple Vietnamese sandwich that packs a punch with its crunchy texture and aromatic, sweet and savoury flavours. For the main course, choose from options like Southern-style pancakes, wraps and rolls, or grilled pork chop with broken rice.

With food in our bellies and spring in our step, we then explore old residential areas of Saigon that still house over 2,000 people. The evening is made sweeter with the classic grilled banana dessert that is wrapped in sticky rice and topped with homemade coconut milk. We end the tour at a craft beer shop tucked away in a historic old building, by sampling their unique brews.
