Following six decades of colonisation, Hanoi was ushered in a new era of Independence under the leadership of Ho Chi Minh and the city also pays homage to its former President through a Mausoleum.

Our Highlights of Hanoi Half-Day tour covers all these details to unveil how the city's past continues to affect its present times. We first visit Ba Dinh Square, where Ho Chi Minh read the Proclamation of Independence, leading to the foundation of a free Vietnam. Journey through central Hanoi to the Temple of Literature, the city's oldest university honouring Confucius. Explore the Vietnamese Women's Museum, showcasing the important role of women in the country's history.

Conclude the tour with an egg coffee demonstration and savour a cup of the iconic beverage (which was discovered during a time of milk shortage during the French war) at a charming coffee shop. Bid farewell to your guide, following which your driver will transfer you to your hotel.
